SUBSCRIBERS MIGRATED	DVLA VEHICLE IMPORT	IN PRODUCTION

Software engineer building serverless backends on AWS and the TypeScript products on top of them. Four years in production: telecom device management at ADTRAN, UK government services at Kainos and JoinBee, a SaaS for schools and clubs, built after hours.

EXPERIENCE

Software Engineer II

ADTRAN

- Single-handedly migrated 1.3M subscribers (end users) from an existing system to a new microservice, from architecture to cutover.
- Built a global search service on OpenSearch that ingests data from many sources into one index, replacing several separate indexes that were hard to query together.
- Built a gateway proxy service that connects to customer devices over a tunnel and renders the router's own UI directly inside our app.

Associate Software Engineer

Kainos

- DVSA MOT service: Images in Garages, attaching vehicle photos to the MOT test. Extended the PHP frontend and built the serverless TypeScript backend on AWS.
- Moved a Java 8 service from EC2 to Docker on Fargate.

- DVLA Import: cut the time to propagate a vehicle import across UK registries from 10 minutes to 2.
- Rewrote integration tests of the main MOT API from Behat to Playwright.
- Spark Forms: customer satisfaction surveys for UK government websites in Java Spring Boot, Angular and AWS.

Software Engineer
